A proposed settlement has been reached in Ayyad v. Sprint Spectrum L.P., Case No. RG03-121510, a class action claiming Sprint's $150 and $200 flat-rate early termination fees ("ETFs") violated California law. If (1) you are the Account Holder and had a Sprint cellphone account for personal use, with a California area code and a California billing address, (2) you paid one or more Sprint flat-rate ETFs for an early contract termination that occurred on or after July 10, 1999 and on or before March 18, 2007, or paid an ETF under a Nextel cellphone contract that was initiated on or after August 12, 2005, and terminated on or before March 18, 2007 and (3) you submit a claim on or before April 25, 2017, then you may be eligible to recover $125 for each ETF you paid.

The claim must be submitted by the person whose name appears as the account holder of the Sprint account, or the person legally entitled to assume account holder status by verified succession, inheritance, decree, etc. The Claims Administrator through Sprint and the attorneys in this settlement will identify whether you are eligible to recover $125 for each ETF you paid based on the information you provide on your claim.

THIS CLAIM FORM MUST BE POSTMARKED OR FILED ELECTRONICALLY NO LATER THAN APRIL 25, 2017. To submit a claim electronically, please visit www.SprintCaliforniaETFsettlement.com.
