An Important Notice from the Superior Court of California, County of Alameda

You may be entitled to $125.00 or more under a class action settlement with Sprint.

A proposed settlement has been reached in Ayyad v. Sprint Spectrum L.P., Case No. RG03-121510, a class action claiming Sprint's $150 and $200 flat-rate early termination fees ("ETFs") violated California law.

If (1) you are the Account Holder and had a Sprint cellphone account for personal use, with a California area code and a California billing address, (2) you paid one or more Sprint flat-rate ETFs for an early contract termination that occurred on or after July 10, 1999 and on or before March 18, 2007, or paid an ETF under a Nextel cellphone contract that was initiated on or after August 12, 2005, and terminated on or before March 18, 2007 and (3) you submit a claim on or before April 25, 2017, then you may be eligible to recover $125 for each ETF you paid.

To file a claim online, obtain more information or to ask to be excluded from the class, go to www.SprintCaliforniaETFsettlement.com.

You can also request to be excluded from the class by writing to California ETF Settlement, c/o KCC, P.O. Box 6002, Larkspur, CA 94977-6002, by November 23, 2016. If you do not request exclusion, you will be bound by the resulting settlement and judgment, whether favorable to you or not. You may also choose to object to the settlement, and, if you do not request exclusion, may enter an appearance through counsel. Any objections must be filed with the Court and served on counsel for the parties by November 23, 2016. The court will hold a hearing on December 9, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. in Department 21 of Alameda County Superior Court, located at 1221 Oak Street, Fourth Floor, Oakland, CA 94612, to determine whether or not to grant final approval to the settlement. As part of the Settlement, Class Counsel will submit a request for attorneys' fees, expenses, and incentive awards for the Class Representatives.
